

Archery Success

Yeovil and District Scouts were able to start an Archery Club at the Great Lyde Scout Group for all Cubs, Scouts & Explorers Scouts in October 2009.

The Club is run by Rob Pitts who completed his Archery training as an instructor last year and supported by other leaders within the District has been running 4 sessions on a Saturday every month for the past 10 months .

During the past few months, the young people have been given the opportunity to achieve their own sections Activity Badge relevant to this sport. The badges have been achieved by completing a project on, being aware of all the safety aspects of the sport, identifying the different parts of the Bow & Arrows, and by taking part in a competition run by the Club.

At the end of each session in July the following young people were awarded:-

Cubs Sports Enthusiast:

Joseph Brennan-Laird (Great Lyde)
Joseph Travers (West Coker)
Oliver Kemp (West Coker)
Edward Broom (West Coker)

Scout Master at Arms:

Megan Hallgate (Great Lyde)
Isobel Brennan-Laird (Great Lyde)
Ellie Bromley (St Michaels)
Joseph Bromley (St Michaels)
Connor Johnston (Wessex)
Rhys Bradshaw (St Michaels)
Ben Wilton (Wessex)
Joshua Trowbridge (Great Lyde)

Explorer Physical Recreation:

Daniel Wilton (Wessex)
Chris Wright (Wessex)

Congratulations go to all the young people who have achieved these awards and thanks must go to all the leaders especially Rob who give up so much time for the benefit of others.
